ABOUT US

Our important work involves providing free respite breaks to children who face difficulties at home.

The youngsters may live in a low-income family, have suffered a bereavement, be a child carer looking after a parent or sibling, or deserve a break for a host of other reasons.

Happy memories are made and the children, aged 8 to 11, benefit enormously from the support they receive on these holidays.

We see their confidence boosted and the joy on their faces as they learn to work in teams and have fun. Above all, they are free to relax, make friend and feel safe. Their parents benefit too – they get a break which relieves pressure and strengthens family bonds.

We are proud our charity has provided more than 60,000 free holidays for children in Leicester, Leicestershire and Rutland since 1898.

After our 120th anniversary we were determined to modernise and have linked up with expert companies across the UK who specialise in offering fun and enriching activity holidays to children.

Our youngsters still enjoy seaside breaks with trips to the beach and hunting in rock pools as they always have. We now offer exciting new experiences such as zip-wires, archery, bushcraft and tree-top trails.
